I've changed the configuration on flash option (realtime). But I also have the problem that the flash doesn't actually fire. I can see the flash indicators in realtime and manual mode (where you can choose the right angle for the flash). But the flash doesn't actually fire. I have the same problem with lightening. Can anyone help me with that. Btw. I'm using a Samsung Galaxy S2 with Android 4.2.2. Thanks for your help in advance. A: I've fixed the problem by re-installing Android on my phone. The two men who helped make the White House a national shrine to the former president and lifelong Democrat, lie broken by gunshot wounds, and another injured at the scene of the shooting attack, police and family members said. Police found a shattered bullet-proof window at the White House and the assailant had a hunting rifle, an official briefed on the investigation said. The attack came just after the former president had ended a Rose Garden council meeting on racial equality, and as he left the White House to go to a tribute for the late Coretta Scott King. Mrs King, who is the widow of the Martin Luther King Jr, was a long-time ally of the former president. The White House said the president's wife, Michelle, was "safe and unharmed." The president's limousine, fitted with bullet-proof glass, had not been delivered, a White House spokesman said. The two security men who had served the former president were both killed, and
